Numb. 514.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From Thursday August 7, to Thursday August 14, 1746.

H A G U E, May 24. N. S.

MARSHAL Bathiani retreated from great Sunderdt to Ypalear near Breda, and has since made another Motion behind the last mentioned Place, where he has posted the Army almost in the old Lines thrown up by Prince Maurice during the Siege of Breda by Spinola, in the Year 1624. The Position of our Army, by the freshest Letters, was, with his Right at Ter Hyde, having the Marck and Breda to cover it, and it's Left stretching towards the Dungen, and the Innundation of Gertruydenburg with that Fortrefs a little behind it, and Heusden and even Bolduc at no considerable Distance upon its Flank; whilst its Back is covered by the Biesboch, which at the same Time secures its Communication with these Provinces, and even with the Sea. It is hoped the Marshal may be able to maintain this advantageous Post, until the Arrival of his Reinforcements enable him to face the Enemy; who, in the mean Time, are left Masters of all the open Country between the Meuse and the Schelde. The small Garrison, and the Brass Ordnance that were in Fort Marguarite, has been withdrawn, and brought off down the Schelde by one of the Dutch Guard Ships. Prince Waldeck has thrown two Battalions into Bergen-op-foom. The Innundations at Lillo, Burgen-op-foom, and Bolduc are already formed, and one eventually ordered at Heusden, if judged necessary by the General.

Hague, May 27. N. S. According to the freshest Advices we have here this Day, the French took Possession of Antwerp upon the 20th Instant, and opened the Trenches before the Citadel but on the 25th. According to the said Advices, their main Army lay still with its Right at Leer, and its Left to the Cawley of Antwerp, with an advanced Corps of about 15,000 Men, under the Count d'Etrec, at Herenthals. They had once detached a Body towards Ruremonde, which we hear is returned without having push'd its March quite to the Meuse, and after having paid for every Thing they demanded, whilst in the Territory of the State. On the Side of Breda, and of our Army, hardly so much as any Grassins have yet shewn themselves. In the mean Time, the Allied Army seems occupied in strengthening its present Post, and drawn in its Subsistence.

Emmerick, May 28. The Hanoverian Regiment of Hugo is arrived here. This Regiment is followed by some others, which are expected here to-day or to-morrow. The Hanoverian Troops are to halt two or three Days, in order to refresh themselves, in this Neighbourhood, and near Wesel; after which they are to continue their March, in Order to join the Allied Army.

N. B. Emmerick is in the Dutchy of Cleves, subject to the States General, but about 70 Miles from Breda. The French Troops that were sent to intercept these, are said to be return'd, upon finding their Design impracticable.

Hague, May 30. The Dispute about the three Ships, belonging to the French East India Company, which were taken by the English and sold at Batavia, is at last adjusted. Our India Company is to keep the Ships and Cargoes, but is to pay to the French a Million and an half of Dutch Florins. The settling of this Point is looked upon as a fresh Proof that the Negotiations for a Reconciliation go on successfully.

On Tuesday a Domestick of the Abbé de la Ville arriv'd here, with Dispatches for Mr. Chiquet, Secretary of the French Embassy; and it is said that the Abbé himself is expected here, in Order to execute a Commission from the King of France.

Hague, May 30. The French have their advanced Posts almost close to the Barony of Breda; but they have not yet entered upon the Territories of the Republick, which is imputed to the Negotiations now on the Tapis.

Our last Advices about the Citadel of Antwerp are of the 28th, at which Time the French were firing very vigorously, and had made themselves Masters of one of the Out-Works.

N. B. Other Advices from the Hague of the same Date, say, that on the 29th the Castle continued making a brave Defence, and that the Besiegers had then had 12 or 1300 kill'd, and a great Number wounded.

L O N D O N, May 22.

His Majesty will go to the House of Peers the Beginning of next Week, to give the Royal Assent to the Bill to attain of High Treason divers Persons concerned in the Rebellion, unless they surrender themselves on or before the 12th of July next.

On Tuesday three Persons arrived in Town from Edinburgh, and were put under the Care of his Majesty's Messengers, for treasonable Practices. And

In a few Days upwards of 20 Persons of Distinction are expected in Town on the same Account.

We hear that Orders are issued for 20 Pontoons and 30 Gunners to be embarked forthwith from Woolwich for Holland.

We hear that four Regiments have received Orders to march into Essex, in order to be in Readiness to embark on a short Notice.

Yesterday sailed out of the Downs, about forty Sail of Transports, under Convoy of his Majesty's Ships Lark and Squirrel, for Portsmouth, in Order to take the Troops on board for the intended Expedition for North-America.

This Morning came Advice, that the Dursley Privateer, Capt. Organ Furnell, of Bristol, (late his Majesty's Ship the Dursley Galley) was taken in the Latitude of 46, by two French Frigates of 24 and 10 Guns, after an obstinate Resistance of four Hours and an half, in which Capt. Furnell lost 30 of his Men: She is carried into Port Louis.

By a Letter from Leghorn we have Advice of two Ships being taken by some of his Majesty's Men of War, and carried into that Port, one of whom was a French Felucca, bound from Marseilles to Alexandria; and the other was a Dutch Ship bound from Constantinople to Marseilles.

On Saturday Night a general Court was held at Kensington, which did not break up till late; after which, an Express was dispatch'd to Mr. Trevor at the Hague, which, it is said, carries Dispatches of the greatest Importance, in the present Situation of Affairs between Holland and France.

The Dutch pretend that their Republick has a noble Apology in Es—s who maintains that they have done all in their Power during the present War, and engages his Honour for them that they will take no Measure prejudicial to their Allies. — It was owing to the Eloquence, they say, of this great Man, that the M—n was crushed for keeping at Home the B—s Troops, unless the St—s G—l would actually declare War, against France.

Something more than drinking of the Waters is expected to be the Consequence of his Prussian Majesty's sudden Journey to Pyrmont at this Season; and probably by the Resolutions taken by this Monarch, and the real Destination of the Russian Troops, may yet in a great Measure depend the Turn of Affairs in the Campaign that is now begun.

Several Letters from Holland insinuate, that a very few Days will now absolutely reveal the Secret of the Negotiations that have been so long carrying on, and may probably suspend the Operations of War on that Side. — But perhaps a great deal may yet depend upon the Arrival of Succours to the Allied Army, and Count Bathiani's being able to maintain his Ground in his present strong Camp.

London, May 25. The Workmen of Woolwich Yard are busily employed in fitting out the Brittol, of 60 Guns, and several other Men of War and Sloops, to expedite which, they work double Tides, and some Hours on Sundays.

Tuesday last a great Number of Scull Caps were sent from Woolwich for the Forces embarking at Portsmouth.

Extract of a Letter from Bristol, April 26.

On Monday last the Alexander Privateer, Capt. Philips, arrived in Kingroad with two Prizes, a Brig. and a Snow, homeward ward bound from Martinico, and the Solebay Man of War, a 28 Gun Ship, which he cut out of St. Martin's Road, and brought off with about 200 Men, and a great Quantity of Bale Goods on Board, being intended as Convoy to some Ships bound to Martinico.—The Particulars of this Affair, which is one of the boldest and best conducted Actions we have heard of during the War, are as follows.—Capt Philips having on the 9th Instant, parted with his two Prizes off Bellisle, in Chase of other Ships, the last of which proving a Scotchman, brought him within Sight of two Sail which he took to be Merchantmen, off of St. Martins, to whom he also gave Chase, and came up with just as they were entering that Road. Capt. Philips, after taking a distinct View of the Place, and seeing there were no other Ships of War in the Road, resolved to attack them, but not having Sea Room to engage, thought proper to let them come to Anchor in the Road. His Men, unwilling to embark in such a hazardous Enterprize, were generally unwilling to go on, but being encouraged by the Captain, and made sensible that the Undertaking was both safe and feasible, at last consented. He then, after making proper Dispositions, stood into the Road under French Colours; but being to attack to Windward, was obliged to make two or three Tacks before he could come up with the largest of the Two Ships, being the Prize he aimed at. When up, the Captain ordered to grapple and board on the Bow, and threw in 50 Men armed each with a Pistol, Pole-ax and Cutlafs, and at the same Time gave them two Volleys of small Arms from the Alexander's Crew on board, which put the Enemy into great Confusion, and obliged them to retire down under the Quarter-deck, where having Arms at Hand, they began to fire briskly upon the Alexander's Men; which the Captain perceiving, jumped down on the main-deck, and order'd 5 Guns to be fired into them, which did good Execution, and so terrified them, that they immediately surrender'd. The Alexander lost 3 Hands, and the Enemy Ten.

Letter from Plymouth, May 16.

Admiral Martin's Squadron have all joined him, except the Portland and Defiance.

Letter from Plymouth, May 18.

By a Tender arrived on Tuesday last from Admiral Martin, we have an Account that they had not then seen any Thing of the Brest Squadron. The six Sail of Ships in this Port, wait only for a fair Wind to join the Admiral, and then he will be strong enough. The Jamaica Sloop, Capt. Webb, is gone in quest of a Dogger Privateer, said to be off the Start.

Extract of a Letter from Inverary, dated May 2.

Major General Campbell has sent about 800 Men to Lochabar, to which Place it is said General Bland, with a Detachment of the Troops and the Argyllshire Men, are sent from Inverness, which must effectually disperse the Rebels, who some Days ago were said to be gathering together in those Parts. We have Advice that there is a Ship hir'd by the French from Amsterdam, coming for our North West Coast, with 12,000 Stand of Arms and Ammunition. The Ships on that Station have Orders to keep a good Look-out after her. Capt. Ferguson, in the Furnace, has landed a Party on the Island of Barra, and taken Mac Neil of Barra Prisoner, in whose House he found 150 Stand of Arms, and a large Quantity of Spanish Gold.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer at Inverness, May 9.

By this Day's Orders for Regulation of Cloathing, Mordaunt's, Handasyd's, Blakeney's and Batterau's Regiments are to continue at Inverness; the Royals, Sempil's and Pulteney's, are to remain in the Mountains; and the other 12 Regiments are to march Southward, after remaining long enough in the Highlands to support Parties that are destroying the accessible Places to the Rebels. The Lowland Rebels are all dispers'd, except a few notorious Villains, who do not hope for Mercy. Most of Lochiel's Clan are destroy'd. By what I can find, the Temper of the Highlanders is such, that after an Action they are not to be brought together again.

Extract of a Letter from Edinburgh, May 13.

Several of the Rebels dress themselves in Women's Cloaths, and many are detected in this Disguise, some in passing from Kinghorn to Leith.

'Tis generally believed the Pretender is gone off in one of the French Men of War on the West Coast.

Edinburgh, May 15. The last Letters from Inverness make no mention of the March of his Royal Highness the Duke from that Place.

The Prisoners of Distinction, which were taken in Perthshire, are sent North, and it is said, they, with about 180 others, will be shipp'd for London.

On Tuesday the Marques of Tullibardin was put on board the Illium Man of War.

Prisoners are daily brought in.

A Return of the Number of Officers and Men in each Battalion, the Day of the Battle of Culloden.

NEW-YORK, July 21.

Extract from the Votes of the General Assembly of New-York.

Die Mercurii, 18th June, 1746.

A Message from his Excellency by Mr. Goldbrow Banyar, D. Cl. Con. which being read, is in the Words following, viz.

Gentlemen,

AS I look upon it to be a Matter of great Concern to the present Expedition, that the Six Nations of Indians, and others in Alliance with and dependant upon them, should be engaged with us in the War; I have, with that View, ordered the Commissioners of Indian Affairs, immediately to send up a Message to them, to invite them to meet at Albany, on the 20th of next Month: And in Order to bring this Design to Effect, I am commanded by his Majesty, to make them such Presents as I think may be of Use for the Purpose; and I think 'tis proper likewise, that the Colony should make them some additional Present at the same Time: If you are of that Opinion, you will make timely Provision accordingly. And that my Endeavours may be rendered yet more effectual, I have wrote to the several Governors to the Westward, and to the Governors of the Massachusetts-Bay and Connecticut, recommending it to them, to endeavour that their respective Governments do bear their Proportion of the Expence, which will attend the engaging the Indians in the War; that the joint Influence of these Colonies may be exerted, for the Accomplishment of an Event, which would greatly facilitate the present Undertaking, and give us still further Assurance of the Success of it: and in the Interim, tend much to the Security of our Northern Frontiers.

That the Indians may be induced to join heartily with us, I think you should also provide for proper Encouragement for them; and the sooner it is known what they are to be allowed for Bounty and Subsistence, the better.

As I have had no Directions from his Majesty, to provide Botatoes, Tents, or other Particulars for the intended Expedition, (except Arms and Cloathing) and as the Forces cannot proceed without Things necessary, I desire to be speedily informed, whether you will make Provision for them, as well for the Use of the Troops to be raised in this Province, as for such of his Majesty's regular Troops posted here, as I may think proper to order to march, and Occasion may require.

Mr. Collins, the Town-Major of Albany, sustains a heavy and expensive Duty, in the Execution of that Office, for which I think it proper and just, an annual Allowance should be made him suitable to that Service.

G. CLINTON.

On Tuesday last his Excellency our Governor, in the Presence of his Majesty's Council, and the General Assembly of this Colony, was pleased to give his Assent to the following Acts passed this Session, viz.

An Act for the more effectual preventing the Exportation of Provisions and warlike Stores.

An Act for continuing the several Actions, Pleadings, and Processes and Proceeding which were commenced and depending in the late inferior Courts of common-Pleas for Westchester County.

An Act for the Encouraging of Volunteers to enlist in his Majesty's Service, upon the Expedition against Canada.

An

An Act for raising a Supply of £. 40,000, by a Tax on Estates real and personal, for carrying on the Expedition against Canada; for emitting Bills of Credit for the like Sum; and for sinking and cancelling the said Bills in short Periods, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

An Act for impressing Ship Carpenters, House Carpenters, Joiners, Sawyers, and their Servants, and all other Artificers and Labourers, for the building of Battoes; and also for impressing Horses, Waggon, and all other Things necessary for carrying on the Expedition against Canada with the utmost Dispatch.

An Act to detach 300 Men from the City and County of Albany, to serve on the intended Expedition against Canada. And

An Act for fixing and determining the Drawing of the publick Lottery for this Colony, on or before the first of September next.

And then the General Assembly was adjourned to Tuesday the 29th of this Instant.

They write from our Frontiers, that the French Indians have burnt the House of Samuel Cregier, and several other Houses at Canistagajone, near the City of Albany. Two Men are lately taken Captive at the Plantation of Mr. Myndert Wemple. Mr. Robert Dunbar, who has been remarkably serviceable as an Out-scout ever since the Commencement of the War, and perfectly well acquainted with the Situation of the Country, has been so unfortunate as to be taken Prisoner on the Carrying-Place, while he was ranging the Woods in the Service of the Government, whose Loss is very much lamented by all his Acquaintance. That one of our Indians has killed a French Mohawk at the Plantation of Mr. Cornelius Van Beuren, and brought the Scalp to Albany, where he was paid 10 l. as a Bounty allowed by the Province, and a Collection was made for him, which amounted to about 20 l. more. It is thought our Indians, when his Excellency our Governor comes to Albany, will join us in the War against the French, and that will be of the greatest Service to the Expedition.

Extract of a Letter from Jamaica, dated June 27, 1746.

Yesterday arrived several Vessels from London, by whom we have the agreeable News of the Defeat of the Rebels. Also that a Bristol Privateer, after having taken two Ships from Martinico, ventured into the River St. Martins, near Bourdeaux, and there cut out the Solebay Man of War, formerly of England then of France, laden with Bale Goods, and was coming out as Convoy to some other Vessels for the West-Indies, having on board 250 Men. And the Oxford and Pembroke Men of War have taken a French Man of War of 48 Guns, all Brails, and upon one Deck, a new fine model'd Ship, not long out.

ADVERTISEMENT S.

DESERTED on the 23d of July from the Camp at Williamsburg, the Three following Soldiers, viz.

George Bennet, an Englishman; he is well-set, aged about 19, 5 Feet 3 Inches high, of a fair Complexion, speaks thick, and was condemned for robbing Mr. Blair's Store, on James River has been used to go by Water, and had on a Grey Coat.

Abraham Fillkins, a Virginian, about 5 Feet 10 Inches high, aged about 22, of a dark Complexion, grey Eyes, and has an impudent Look. Had on a Pair of new Leather Breeches, a brown Waistcoat, and a Fear-nothing ditto; has a Scar over his Left Eye, has been used to the Water, and was likewise condemned for robbing Mr. Blair's Store.
